- It is proposed to introduce a new definition of “resort residential building” in Draft Zoning Bylaw No. 1395 in order to replace references to “resort multiple family dwelling” currently found in Zoning Bylaw No. 1085.
- The definition of “resort residential building” would be as follows:

“resort residential building” means an apartment building within which a dwelling unit may be used for a residential or short-term rental accommodation use, with the latter being for periods of less than one month. The resort residential building may include accessory facilities such as eating and drinking establishments, banquet and convention rooms, recreation facilities and personal service establishments for the convenience of residents and guests;
